Unit Overview

Students will answer questions about the text with strong support by quoting from the text directly or making inferences from the text when necessary. Students will pay attention to the author's word choice, understand the meaning of those words, and determine meaning of figurative language used by the author to paint a picture in the reader's mind. Students will gain an understanding of historical events and read about them in different genres (such as plays or scripts) and from different points of view. Students will continue to build skills with quoting directly from a text, but will begin pulling information from multiple sources to defend their opinion.
