Unit Overview

The rationale of the Healthy Relationships unit is to provide students with the basic knowledge and experience they need to to live a healthy life. The information learned by the students will help them to become socially healthy individuals.

In Unit 1, students will engage with content regarding:

- Communication Skills
- Your Family, Friends and Peers
- Refusal Skills
- Resolving Conflicts

Learning Targets

I can...

- Describe different Ways to Communicate
 - Body Language
 - Outbound and Inbound Messages
- Describe Family Relationships
- Describe Family Types
- Explain Coping Strategies with Family Changes
- Describe how to recognize friends
- Recognize the signs of Peer Pressure
- Describe refusal Skills
- Ways to Negotiate Conflicts

Essential Questions

- How does physical health affect one's total health?
- How does mental health affect one's total health?
- How does emotional health affect one's total health?
- How does social health affect one's total health?

Enduring Understandings

- People in healthy relationships share thoughts and feelings, as well as mutual respect.
- All individuals should feel welcome and included regardless of their gender, gender expression, or sexual orientation.
- Children who practice setting healthy boundaries know how to say no and what to do when they feel uncomfortable or find themselves in unsafe situations.

Interdisciplinary Connections

Science

K-LS1-1. Use observations to describe patterns of what plants and animals (including humans) need to survive.

K-ESS3-3. Communicate solutions that will reduce the impact of humans on the land, water, air, and/or other living things in the local environment.

MS-LS1-5 . Construct a scientific explanation based on evidence for how environmental and genetic factors influence the growth of organisms.

- Connections to health processes associated with physiology and anatomy

- Basic understanding of communicability of diseases in discussion of wellness

ELA

NJSLSA.R1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences and relevant connections from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.

RI.2.1. Ask and answer such questions as who, what, where, when, why, and how to demonstrate understanding of key details in a text.

RI.3.7. Use information gained from text features (e.g., illustrations, maps, photographs) and the words in a text to demonstrate understanding of the text (e.g., where, when, why, and how key events occur). RI.2.7. Explain how specific illustrations and images (e.g., a diagram showing how a machine works) contribute to and clarify a text.
