

Unit 2: Early Civilizations and the Emergence of Pastoral Peoples: Ancient River Valley Civilizations

Content Area: Social Studies
Course(s): Social Studies 6
Time Period: December
Length: 17 weeks
Status: Published

Unit Overview

In this unit, ancient river valley civilizations (RVC) are explored. The 4 major RVC are Mesopotamia, Egypt, India, and China. For each of the RVC, we will examine their geography, religion, achievements, political structure, economy, and social structure (GRAPES). As we examine each RVC, we will compare and contrast their similarities and differences. Students will be able to eventually determine common factors that make up what an ancient RVC is and why they are so important to understanding the development of civilization in general.

These RVC were the first civilizations in the world. Students will investigate how these river valleys helped to support growing populations, and how these populations were then able to advance into civilizations. Students will learn through study and apply the following flow chart: agriculture, surplus, barter, division of labor, complex culture, and advanced civilization. This flow chart of activity appears in every civilization, and if any part of the flow fails, students will discover how the civilization will fall apart. Each part depends on the part before it.

Two of these RVC (India and China) will turn into classic civilizations, which is the next unit of study.

21st Century Life & Career Ready Practices

CRP.K-12.CRP2.1	Career-ready individuals readily access and use the knowledge and skills acquired through experience and education to be more productive. They make connections between abstract concepts with real-world applications, and they make correct insights about when it is appropriate to apply the use of an academic skill in a workplace situation.
CRP.K-12.CRP4.1	Career-ready individuals communicate thoughts, ideas, and action plans with clarity, whether using written, verbal, and/or visual methods. They communicate in the workplace with clarity and purpose to make maximum use of their own and others' time. They are excellent writers; they master conventions, word choice, and organization, and use effective tone and presentation skills to articulate ideas. They are skilled at interacting with others; they are active listeners and speak clearly and with purpose. Career-ready individuals think about the audience for their communication and prepare accordingly to ensure the desired outcome.
CRP.K-12.CRP9.1	Career-ready individuals consistently act in ways that align personal and community-held ideals and principles while employing strategies to positively influence others in the workplace. They have a clear understanding of integrity and act on this understanding in every decision. They use a variety of means to positively impact the directions and actions of a team or organization, and they apply insights into human behavior to change others' action, attitudes and/or beliefs. They recognize the near-term and long-term effects that management's actions and attitudes can have on productivity, morals and organizational culture.

CAEP.9.2.8.B.3

Evaluate communication, collaboration, and leadership skills that can be developed through school, home, work, and extracurricular activities for use in a career.

CAEP.9.2.8.B.4

Evaluate how traditional and nontraditional careers have evolved regionally, nationally, and globally.

Strategies for Supports for At-Risk, Special Ed., 504, and ELL

- Choice Boards/Menus
- Chunk assignments, tests, notes
- Copies of notes with fill in the blanks
- Extended Time
- Independent lesson extensions
- Modify assignments and variety of assignment options (tier)
- Modify assignments/assessments as needed
- Provide a variety of ways to learn - visual, auditory, kinesthetic
- Provide graphic organizers
- Provide word banks
- Provide written copy of notes
- Use color coding
- Utilize visual aids
- Vocabulary cards with graphics

Strategies to Support Gifted & Talented

- Article extension with Newsela
- Challenge Projects
- Flexible Groupings based on topic interest
- IXL Resource
- Mini projects with focus on Choice
- Webquests
