Enduring Understandings

- Learners understand that cultures interact with and interpret nature in different ways.
- Learners understand the effects of nature on culture and communities.
- Readers understand the importance of supporting opinions of various texts.
- Readers use information presented in different ways and from different sources to understand a topic.

Priority Standards

LA.RI.4.1	Refer to details and examples in a text and make relevant connections when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.
LA.RI.4.2	Determine the main idea of a text and explain how it is supported by key details; summarize the text.
LA.RI.4.3	Explain events, procedures, ideas, or concepts in a historical, scientific, or technical text, including what happened and why, based on specific information in the text.
LA.RI.4.9	Integrate and reflect on (e.g., practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) information from two texts on the same topic in order to write or speak about the subject knowledgeably.
LA.RL.4.1	Refer to details and examples in a text and make relevant connections when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.
LA.RL.4.2	Determine a theme of a story, drama, or poem from details in the text; summarize the text.
LA.RL.4.3	Describe in depth a character, setting, or event in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text (e.g., a character's thoughts, words, or actions).
LA.RL.4.4	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including those that allude to significant characters found in literature.
LA.RL.4.5	Explain major differences between poems, drama, and prose, and refer to the structural elements of poems (e.g., verse, rhythm, meter) and drama (e.g., casts of characters, settings, descriptions, dialogue, stage directions) when writing or speaking about a text.
LA.RL.4.6	Compare and contrast the point of view from which different stories are narrated, including the difference between first- and third-person narrations.
LA.RL.4.9	Compare, contrast and reflect on (e.g., practical knowledge, historical/cultural context, and background knowledge) stories in the same genre (e.g., mysteries and adventure stories) on their approaches to similar themes and topics.

Unit Overview

Daily 5 routines will continue to be implemented in the classroom as we cover ReadyGEN -- Unit 2 (Modules A and B) . Teachers will utilize ReadyGEN as their primary resource for reading instruction. Outside resources including novels, digital resources, and teacher-created materials may be supplemented to cover the necessary content as a reinforcement to the ReadyGEN materials. In terms of assessment, the following will be administered -- Selection Tests for the anchor and supporting texts and the Unit 2 Summative Assessment (Module A and B). Teachers should also use this time to continue their small group routines and may use Daily 5 with any adaptations necessary (i.e. -- some days may use 3 or 4 of the Daily 5 routines) to teach this Curriculum.
