

Trimester 1 RACE & Informational Writing

Content Area: Writing
Course(s): Writing 6
Time Period: September
Length: Trimester 1
Status: Published

Unit Overview

Trimester one will focus on Expository/informative Writing along with using the RACE format to answer open ended prompts. This unit will be taught using various mentor texts and is entwined with Into Literature Unit 1: Finding Courage. The informational writing piece is a five paragraph essay structure for nonfiction writing as well as the writing process. For the informational essay, students will produce several informal pieces. At the conclusion of the instructional period, students will be assessed with the publication of their Expository Nonfiction writing piece. Writing topics covered in this unit are exploring nonfiction, research and drafting, drafting and revising, and publishing final versions. English Language Conventions lessons imbedded in this unit are sentence structure; including subjects and predicates, compound sentences, clauses and complex sentences, and fragments and run-on sentences. In addition, students will learn nouns and pronouns; including subject and object pronouns, possessive and intensive pronouns, and pronoun antecedents and noun-pronoun agreement.

Priority Standards

ELA.L.SS.6.1	Demonstrate command of the system and structure of the English language when writing or speaking.
ELA.L.KL.6.2	Use knowledge of language and its conventions when writing, speaking, reading, or listening.
ELA.W.IW.6.2	Write informative/explanatory texts (including the narration of historical events, scientific procedures/experiments, or technical processes) to examine a topic and convey ideas, concepts, and information through the selection, organization, and analysis of relevant content.
ELA.W.IW.6.2.A	Introduce a topic and organize ideas, concepts, and information, using text structures (e.g., definition, classification, comparison/contrast, cause/effect, etc.) and text features (e.g., headings, graphics, and multimedia) when useful to aid in comprehension.
ELA.W.IW.6.2.B	Develop the topic with relevant facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples.
ELA.W.IW.6.2.C	Use appropriate transitions to clarify the relationships among ideas and concepts.
ELA.W.IW.6.2.D	Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic.
ELA.W.IW.6.2.E	Acknowledge and attempt a formal/academic style, approach, and form.
ELA.W.IW.6.2.F	Provide a concluding statement or section (e.g., sentence, part of a paragraph, paragraph, or multiple paragraphs) that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented.

ELA.W.WP.6.4	With some guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning; flexibly making editing and revision choices; sustaining effort to fit composition needs and purposes; and attempting to address purpose and audience.
ELA.W.SE.6.6	Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources; assess the credibility of each source; and quote or paraphrase the data and conclusions of others while avoiding plagiarism and providing basic bibliographic information for sources.

Additional Standards

ELA.W.WR.6.5	Conduct short research projects to answer a question, drawing on several sources and refocusing the inquiry when appropriate.
ELA.W.RW.6.7	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, metacognition/self-correction, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
