Enduring Understanding

Beliefs influence actions

Conflict leads to changes, both positive and negative

The Civil War was fought over states' rights issues more than over the morality of slavery

Social and economic challenges can divide nations and lead to war

The Civil War was a "total war" and was the defining moment in American history

Patriotism became sacralized to the point of equal existence with conventional denominational faiths

Essential Questions

What is freedom?

What is a just war?

To what extent was slavery a "cause" of the Civil War?

Did Abraham Lincoln free the slaves?

How did the nation try but fail to deal with growing sectional differences?

Was the war inevitable after the sectional crises of the 1850s?

Was the Civil War detrimental or beneficial to the industrialization of America? In what ways?

Why do we have to fight wars?

Do we have to fight wars?

How could political issues or ideas ever become more important than family loyalties?

Some say our country remains wounded by the slavery experience and the Civil War. In what ways might this claim be true and in what ways untrue?

How can countries avoid the kind of bloodshed and devastation we experienced during our Civil War?

How much diversity can any nation tolerate?

Interdisciplinary Connections

- Academic and Technical Rigor - Projects are designed to address key learning standards identified by the school or district.
- Authenticity - Projects use a real world context (e.g., community and workplace problems) and address issues that matter to the students.
- Applied Learning - Projects engage students in solving problems calling for competencies expected in high-performance work organizations (e.g., teamwork, problem-solving, communication, etc.).
- Active Exploration - Projects extend beyond the classroom by connecting to internships, fieldbased investigations, and community explorations.
- Adult Connections - Projects connect students with adult mentors and coaches from the wider community.
- Assessment Practices - Projects involve students in regular, performance-based exhibitions and assessments of their work; evaluation criteria reflect personal, school, and real-world standards of performance.
