

Subjects and Predicates – Monday

Name: _____

A sentence has a subject and a predicate. The subject is the sentence part that tells whom or what the sentence is about. All the words in the subject are called the complete subject. The predicate is the sentence part that tells what the subject is or does. All the words in the predicate are called the complete predicate.

Directions Underline the complete subject of each sentence.

1. The rug maker sold his rugs at the market.

2. The children shared their candy.

3. The fruit in the baskets smelled so sweet.

Directions Underline the complete predicate of each sentence.

4. Everything was on sale!

5. The merchant sold his goods.

6. Teachers and parents help their children.

Subjects and Predicates – Tuesday

Name: _____

A sentence has a subject and a predicate. The subject is the sentence part that tells whom or what the sentence is about. All the words in the subject are called the complete subject. The predicate is the sentence part that tells what the subject is or does. All the words in the predicate are called the complete predicate.

Directions Add a predicate to each subject to make a complete sentence. Write the sentence with correct punctuation.

1. The boy _____

2. The merchant _____

Directions Add a subject to each predicate to make a complete sentence. Write the sentence with correct punctuation.

3. _____ can help them learn

4. _____ builds homes

Subjects and Predicates – Wednesday

Name: _____

Directions Mark the letter of the complete subject of each sentence.

1. The wise man helped them. A. The man B. The wise man C. them D. helped them	3. Most carpenters work hard. A. work hard B. Most C. carpenters D. Most carpenters
2. The farmer fed his goats. A. his goats B. fed C. farmer D. The farmer	4. The rug maker was nice to him. A. rug B. him C. The rug maker D. was nice to him

Directions Mark the letter of the complete predicate of each sentence.

5. The boy learned a lesson. A. a lesson B. The boy C. learned D. learned a lesson	7. They all lived in the village. A. They B. They all C. lived D. lived in the village
6. Goats like to climb on things. A. Goats like B. on things C. like to climb on things D. Goats	8. The market place was busy. A. was busy B. The market C. busy D. market place

Subjects and Predicates – Thursday

Name: _____

Directions Underline the complete subject of each sentence.

1. The storyteller shared many lessons.

2. Grandparents often teach their children.

Directions Underline the complete predicate of each sentence.

3. The author wrote an interesting story.

4. We learned about honesty.

Directions Add a predicate or a subject to make a complete sentence.
Remember to use capital letters and punctuation marks.

5. The young boy in the fable

6. told the child a fable
