

Commands and Exclamations – Monday

Name: _____

A sentence that tells someone to do something is a command. A sentence that shows strong feelings is an exclamation. Some commands begin with please. Commands usually end with periods. The subject of a command is you. The word you is not written or said, but it is understood. Exclamations can express feelings such as surprise, anger, or excitement. Exclamations begin with a capital letter and end with an exclamation mark.

Directions Write each command correctly.

1. please do your homework tonight

2. don't forget to turn it in tomorrow

Directions Write each exclamation correctly.

3. Wow! You did a great job on your test

4. How cute that kitten looks

Commands and Exclamations – Tuesday

Name: _____

A sentence that tells someone to do something is a command. A sentence that shows strong feelings is an exclamation. Some commands begin with please. Commands usually end with periods. The subject of a command is you. The word you is not written or said, but it is understood. Exclamations can express feelings such as surprise, anger, or excitement. Exclamations begin with a capital letter and end with an exclamation mark.

Directions Write a command for the following.

1. what you would say to a classmate

2. what you would say to a grandparent

Directions Write an exclamation for the following.

3. what you would say to a baby

4. what you would say to a friend

Commands and Exclamations – Wednesday

Name: _____

Directions Mark the letter of the answer that best completes the kind of sentence in ().

1. _____ a cute little puppy! (exclamation) A. what B. What. C. what! D. What	5. What fun it is to play _____ (exclamation) A. Games B. games C. games! D. games.
2. _____ your best behavior. (command) A. show B. Show C. Show! D. show.	6. _____ your coat in the closet. (command) A. put B. Put! C. Put D. put.
3. _____ give your money to me. (command) A. please! B. please. C. Please D. please	7. Don't forget to feed the _____ (command) A. pets. B. pets! C. pets? D. pets
4. The kitten is lost in the _____. (exclamation) A. woods. B. woods! C. woods? D. woods	8. _____ to my house today. (command) A. come B. Come C. Come. D. come!

Commands and Exclamations – Thursday

Name: _____

Directions Write command if the sentence is a command. Write exclamation if the sentence is an exclamation.

	1. Count your money carefully.
	2. My money has been stolen!
	3. What a cool wallet you have!
	4. He is richest man I know!
	5. Put your homework in the box please.
	6. Go get the mail from the mailbox.
	7. How beautiful the weather is today!
	8. Spend your own money on your toys.