

Adverbs – Monday

Name: _____

You can use adverbs to compare actions.

The –er form of an adverb compares two actions.

The –est form of an adverb compares three or more actions.

Most adverbs that end in –ly use more and most to make comparisons

Directions Underline the adverb that compares in each sentence.

1. My husband has been driving cars longer than I have been.
2. Please paint the house more carefully than you did last time.
3. Saturday and Sunday go by most quickly of all the days.
4. Stefanie drives the quad and go-cart faster than Stevie does.
5. Mrs. Potosky has the loudest voice of all of the teachers.

Directions Circle the correct word in () to complete each sentence.

6. I learned that turtles walk (slowest | slower) than rabbits do.
7. Cheetahs run (faster | fastest) of all land mammals.
8. Of all of the kids, he works (more cheerfully | most cheerfully).
9. She finishes her work (more rapidly | most rapidly) than him.

Adverbs – Tuesday

Name: _____

Directions Mark the letter of the word that completes each sentence.

1. Mr. Knauss can sing _____ than Mr. Cogle. A. loudest B. loudly C. loud D. louder	5. Mrs. Williams works _____ of anyone in the class. (I feel like it.) A. hardest B. hard C. harder D. most hard
2. Mrs. Bunting is acting _____ than she was yesterday. A. more cheerfully B. cheerful C. most cheerful D. more cheerfuller	6. Of all of the runners, he will run _____. A. more quickly B. quicker C. most quickly D. quick
3. Jillian arrives at school the _____ of all of the students. A. soon B. more soon C. sooner D. soonest	7. I will sing songs _____ than my husband will. (You know it's true!) A. eagerly B. most eagerly C. more eagerer D. more eagerly
4. This week's test may take _____ than last week's test. A. longly B. longer C. long D. longest	8. I can get ready for school _____ than Stefanie. (That's true.) A. fast B. more fast C. fastest D. faster

Adverbs – Wednesday

Name: _____

Directions Circle the adverb that compares in each sentence.

1. My mother can clean the house faster than my father.
2. My father mows grass more quickly than my mother.
3. The bakers start their day earliest of all of the hotel workers.
4. The mail comes sooner on Friday than it does on Monday.
5. Of the five houses on my street, my driveway is the longest.
6. Of all of the students, Sierra takes her test most carefully.
7. Of all rocks and minerals, diamond is the hardest.
8. Our dog Cuddles barks louder than the TV sometimes.
9. Shea speaks more quietly than her brother Caleb.
10. Mrs. Williams works longer than Mrs. Sholette. (She is so lucky!)

Adverbs – Thursday

Name: _____

Directions Circle the correct word in () to complete each sentence.

1. The loser drove (slower | slowest) of all the race car drivers.
2. Mike hiked (longest | longer) than Doug hiked.
3. Steven sang (more excitedly | most excitedly) of his whole class.
4. She whispered (most quietly | more quietly) than her friend.
5. The cheerleaders cheered (louder | loudest) than the crowd.
6. Of all of the construction workers, Dad works (harder | hardest).
7. Of all doctors, surgeons must work (more carefully | most carefully).
8. Which of the five athletes was able to jump (longest | longer)?
9. The toast was ready (soon | sooner) than the eggs.
10. Mr. Moore arrives at school (most early | earliest) of all people.